

Motivational Interviewing Fidelity Coding Training with the MITI 4.2.1

How do we know it's really good MI? Motivational Interviewing trainers, Margo Bristow and Onna Brewer, are excited to offer this highly interactive, online course walking participants through use of the Motivational Interviewing Treatment Integrity 4.2.1 Coding Manual ("the MITI") for fidelity coding of audio recordings. We'll also practice providing helpful and MI-consistent coding feedback for MI learners and discuss ways to grow in coding proficiency and reliability.

Included in this course:

- 16 hours of live online interactive instruction with opportunities for Q&A
- Access to handouts, slides, audio recording samples, and sample coding sheets
- CE credits approved by the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation (IDFPR)
- Membership in our monthly online MI Coding Lab for the year following this event, includes 1 free co-coded tape to support new coder inter-rater reliability (IRR)
