Motivational Interviewing (MI) is a particular way of having a conversation about change so it is that the client rather than the clinician who voices the arguments for change. It is a measurable, person-centered approach that provides a framework, along with skills and strategies for effective conversations. Participants will leave this interactive webinar with specific skills and strategies that they can put to use immediately.

This 3 hour training is designed specifically for new MI learners and is a great refresher for those who already know Motivational Interviewing.
