

<https://americanaddictioncenters.org/>

Advanced Motivational Interviewing: Working with Unmotivated Clients

Tuesday, December 11, 2018 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Townsend * 3620 Chestnut Street * New Orleans, LA 70115

Participants will

- Identify strategies to minimize sustain talk and reduce discord during interactions with clients
- Learn common tools to develop discrepancy in pre-contemplative clients
- Apply skills in live role plays

Prior knowledge of motivational interviewing principles and skills is recommended.

$125 (6.0 clinical contact hours)

Check-in starts at 8:00 AM.

Motivational Interviewing Strategies in Clinical Supervision:

A Supervisor's Workshop

Thursday, December 13, 2018 9:00 a.m. to 12:15 pm.

American Red Cross * 4655 Sherwood Common Blvd * Baton Rouge

Participants will be able to:

- Define motivational interviewing (MI) and its application to the supervisory relationship
- Apply the spirit and principles of MI to the supervisory relationship
- Explain the processes of MI within the context of supervision
- Identify MI strategies for use in supervision

*Workshops are pending CEU approval for social work, LPC and ADRA. Advanced workshop also pending for RDNs ****

$75 (3.0 supervision CE hours)

Check-in starts at 8:30 AM.

REGISTER AT WWW.EVENTBRITE.COM

Search by workshop title

Angie Wood, Ph.D., LCSW-BACS, C-CATODSW, CCS

About the presenter. Dr. Angela "Angie" Wood is a member of the international Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers. She has been training participants from various backgrounds and settings since 2005. A licensed clinical social worker for over 20 years, Dr. Wood is an instructor with Southeastern Louisiana University's Social Work Program and a contributing faculty member with Walden University's online Barbara Solomon School of Social Work and Human Services.

www.motivationalinterviewing4u.net