

Introduction to Motivational Interviewing: An Instructor-Led Online Course

Meets weekly on Thursdays from October 16, 2014 through November 13, 2014 12:00 – 1:00 pm EST

Course Description

Motivational Interviewing (MI) is a collaborative, person-centered, guiding conversation style to help strengthen a person's own motivation to change. Based on the 3rd edition of Motivational Interviewing: Helping People Change (Miller and Rollnick, 2013), this instructor-led course will cover the underlying mindset, core skills, and methods of MI. Participants will engage in learning through a blend of webcasts, written materials, videos, exercises, and practice opportunities. The course will be led by members of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT).

Recommended Audiences

- Agencies seeking to incorporate evidence-based practices into their programs
- Clinical directors and supervisors
- Health, behavioral health, and social service practitioners of all disciplines
- Individuals looking to bring person-centered motivational practices into their work

Continuing Education Credits

---

This course has been approved for 15 hours of Continuing Education Credit by the National Association of Social Workers (NASW), the Association of Addiction Professionals (NAADAC), and the National Board of Certified Counselors (NBCC).

Course Instructors

---

Ken Kraybill, MSW has worked in the health, behavioral health, and homelessness arena for the past 30+ years. He is a Senior Associate at the Center for Social Innovation and Director of Training for t3 (think. teach. transform.), a training institute and learning platform committed to improving the knowledge and skills of individuals and organizations working in human services. Ken has developed various curricula to inform and equip others in person-centered, housing-focused, trauma-informed, recovery-oriented, peer-integrated best practice approaches. He provides training nationally on topics including Motivational Interviewing, outreach and engagement, trauma-informed care, and renewal for care providers. He is a member of the international Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT). Ken has an MSW from the University of Washington in Seattle and an undergraduate degree from Goshen College in Indiana.

Scott R. Peterson, LCSW, CAC-III is a Clinical Assistant Professor at University of Denver Graduate School of Social Work (GSSW) and co-coordinator of GSSW's Trauma Certificate Program. He is also a Faculty Member at the Center for Social Innovation based in Boston, MA. He maintains a private psychotherapy practice in Denver, CO. He has been working with people affected by mental illness, substance use, and trauma for over 20 years as an outreach worker, case manager, psychotherapist, clinical supervisor, and program director. While working with Heartland Alliance for Human Needs and Human Rights based in Chicago, IL, he served as a trainer and consultant for the Iraq Integrated Torture Treatment Project. He is a current member of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT). Prior to his appointment at GSSW, where he received the school's 2013 Excellence in Teaching Award for Adjunct Faculty, he was a Lecturer at the University of Chicago School of Social Service Administration. Mr. Petersen received his master's degree from the University of Chicago School of Social Service Administration and completed addictions counseling training through Grant Hospital's Clinical Training Program for Addictions Counseling.

Registration and Tuition

---

To register, please visit: <http://www.center4si.com/training/schedule.cfm>

By October 1, 2014:

Members: $150/person

Non-Members: $215/person

After October 1, 2014:

Members: $200/person

Non-Members: $265/person

Discounts are available for groups of five or more.

If you have any questions, contact Rachel Berkowitz at (781) 274-1741 or info@thinkt3.com.

Visit t3 at www.thinkt3.com.

t3 is an innovative training institute and learning platform committed to improving the knowledge and skills of people working in human services.