- Description:
This 2-Day training provides a thorough foundation of understanding MI theory and practice. All major concepts are presented in a progressive way, so each principle and skill build on the other. In this training, we utilize small group practices to learn and build comfort with the techniques of MI. Our goal is that each participant who applies themselves in this training will be ready to implement these skills in their clinical work immediately after the training.

Craig Anderson is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and a member of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers. He has worked in the human services field for over 20 years. His experience has given him wonderful opportunities in direct clinical service, program administration, research, academics and as a national trainer. Craig was introduced to Motivational Interviewing early on in his career and has utilized MI in a variety of clinical settings, in academia and in various supervisory positions. Craig graduated from the University of Utah and currently resides in East Idaho with his family.
