MINT UK & Ireland are delighted to announce a 3 day training in the Motivational Interviewing Competency Assessment (MICA) tool. This is open to anyone with a strong working knowledge of Motivational Interviewing (MI) who is interested in improving their MI coding and fidelity skills amongst like-minded people.

The MICA was developed by Casey Jackson, Susan Butterworth, Ali Hall, and John Gilbert – all members of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers.

MICA was designed to provide practitioners with easily digestible, structured and specific feedback regarding their efforts to use the motivational interviewing approach with their clients. It is a privilege to have Casey Jackson in the UK to deliver this training and is an opportunity not to be missed.

For more information on MICA please see: <http://micacoding.com> or this flyer
