

Motivational Interviewing: Facilitating Change

An Instructor-led Online Course

Motivational Interviewing (MI) is a collaborative conversation style for strengthening a person's own motivation and commitment to change. Based on the 2013 edition of Motivational Interviewing: Helping People Change, this course encompasses the underlying mindset, core skills, and methods of MI. Participants engage in learning through webcasts, written materials, videos, exercises, and practice opportunities. Course instructors are experienced members of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT).

This course is popular with:

- Agencies seeking to incorporate evidence-based practices into their programs.
- Case managers, program directors, clinicians, supervisors, and peer specialists.
- Health, behavioral health, and social service practitioners.

Dates: April 23, 30, and May 7, 14, and 21

Time: 12:00 – 1:15 ET

Continuing Education Credits

Pending approval, this course will be approved by the National Association of Social Workers and the Association for Addiction Professionals. t3 is also an NBCC-Approved Continued Education Provider (ACEP) and may offer NBCC-approved clock hours for events that meet NBCC requirements. The ACEP solely is responsible for all aspects of the program. t3 instructor-led online courses are typically approved for 10+ hours of continuing education.

Tuition & Registration

Tuition:

$215 before April 13, 2015

$265 after April 13, 2015

Discounts are available for t3 members and groups of five or more!

To register, please visit:

<https://www.thinkt3.com/schedule.cfm>

Please contact us for more details at info@thinkt3.com.

think • teach • transform

www.thinkt3.com info@thinkt3.com 617.467.6014

Instructors:

Ken Kraybill, MSW,

has worked in health, behavioral health, and homelessness for the past 30+ years. He is a Senior Associate at the Center for Social Innovation and Director of Training for t3 (think. teach. transform.). Ken has developed various curricula to inform and equip others in best practices. He has supervised staff in various settings throughout his career. He provides training nationally on topics including supervision, Motivational Interviewing, outreach and engagement, trauma-informed care, and renewal for care providers. Ken is a member of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT).

Scott R.

Petersen, LCSW,

CAC-III, has been working with people affected by trauma, mental illness, and substance use for nearly 20 years as an outreach worker, case manager, psychotherapist, clinical supervisor, and program director. In addition to his role as a t3 faculty member, he is a Clinical Assistant Professor and Co-Coordinator of the Trauma Response Certificate Program at University of Denver Graduate School of Social Work. While with the Heartland Alliance for Human Needs and Human Rights, he worked as a trainer and consultant for the Iraq Integrated Torture Treatment Project. He is a member of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT) and a participant in the National Council for Behavioral Health Trauma-Informed Learning Community.